With this deposit of $ 300.00, I am entering into a Contractual Agreement with The $100 Bouquet Company. The intent of this Agreement is to hire the above said company to design the floral arrangements required for my event. I understand that this is a non-refundable deposit and is required to hold my event date.

This deposit and all subsequent payments will go toward the balance of my account. Because of the nature of this business, all monies will be forfeited if for any reason I cancel the design services of The $100 Bouquet Company. There is no refund. The contract will stay valid, as written, for one calendar year from the original date.

Once selections are finalized, the client will receive a detailed Contract e-mailed to them in PDF format. My signature guarantees that I have read and understand this Deposit Agreement and will abide by the terms as stated above.
